CONVICT CHILD FREED.

Gov. Bradley Says His Confinement is a Crime Against Civilization.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—James Ossington, the little nine-year-old convict from Boyd county, who entered the penitentiary Wednesday, was pardoned by Gov. Bradley Friday night.

After making an official investigation, and without waiting for a formal application for a pardon, the governor wrote out a pardon, on the face of which he wrote the following indorsement:

"The confinement of this boy is a crime against Christian civilization. A pardon is hereby granted to him."

The governor did not deliver the pardon till he had found a good home for the boy, who is an orphan and without means to obtain transportation back Catlettsburg. Martin Boyd, a colored man, who has the reputation of being one of the best and most upright men of his race, was sent for, and readily consented to take the boy to his house, where he will reside temporarily and probably permanently. At 6 o'clock the little fellow was relieved of his stripes and joyfully left the prison walls for his new home.

BLACK CRIED

For Joy When He Was Detained at Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 6.—Jailer Clark, of Lebanon, arrived in this city Friday morning after William Black, the black brute who assaulted Mrs. Ed Clark there, intending to take the prisoner back to the scene of his crime for trial. He decided, however, that it was unsafe to do so. Early Friday morning, it is said, a mob was forming there to take the man out and hang him as soon as the jailer put in an appearance with him.

For this reason he was allowed to remain in the jail here. Black cried for joy when it was decided not to remove him. Mr. Clark returned to Lebanon and will consult with Judge Patterson before making another move in the matter. The judge has declared that Black shall have a fair trial without molestation, and he will certainly not permit the prisoner to be taken back to Lebanon until it is safe to do so.

BRADLEY DENIES IT.

Says He Has Not Prepared His Call for an Extra Session.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—Gov. Bradley Friday emphatically denied he had prepared his call for the extra session, as reported in a Louisville paper Thursday, and said the whole story was a fabrication, but it can be safely stated that the session is still in project and likely to materialize in April or May. It is known that Ossington's case has been made the subject of letters written to the governor by those who are taking a deep interest in the subject of the proposed school of reform, and this being pointed to as a glaring instance, verifying the need of an extra session at once.

Shot, Not Hanged.

BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Feb. 6.—Further details of the lynching of Robert Morton, colored, at Rockfield, Wednesday, for writing an insulting note to Miss Tommie Johnson, show that the Negro was decoyed to a vacant house out of town and shown the note. Morton then drew a pistol and fired on the mob twice, wounding one man in the leg. The mob returned the fire and Morton fell. He was picked up and carried into the hills. His body has not been found.

Miss Carver Wants to Die.

PADUCAH, Ky., Feb. 6.—Despondent over the shame of her position and the notoriety given to her, Miss Lydia Carver, the victim of an assault last week near Fulton, has already made an attempt at suicide, and it is feared that she will repeat the effort to kill herself. Her father has offered a reward for the capture of his daughter's assailant. It is now believed that the guilty party was a white man with his face blacked.

Two Workmen Badly Injured.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—John Thomas and Joe Ritchie, both colored, were blown up by a premature explosion of a blast in a rock quarry on Spring Hill Friday morning. Thomas' eyes were blown out and Ritchie's leg was blown off. Neither is expected to live. Thomas and Ritchie are stone masons and had lit a fuse, which had exploded, not allowing them time to get away.

Says He Will Confess.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Feb. 6.—The Owensboro Messenger has received an anonymous letter from an alleged member of the Alf Holt mob, saying he intended to confess soon because of a tortured conscience. The letter calls on the police force and fire department to do the same. The letter has been placed in the hands of detectives.

Attachment Against Martin.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—An attachment suit for $21,000 was filed in the circuit court against A. D. Martin, the Chicago contractor who has the state contract for the output of the penitentiary chair factory. It is filed by eastern creditors.

The Jackson and Walling Cases.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—It is said the Jackson and Walling cases have been really passed on by the court of appeals and that the petitions have been overruled. That court is holding them up for fear of criticism of too great haste.

New Printing Company.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 6.—The Graphic Printing Co., of Louisville, Ky., F. W. Shafer, George Smith and John Davidson has filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state.

Hunter Will Stay in the Fight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 6.—Dr. W. G. Hunter says he is still a candidate for senator to succeed Blackburn and will stay in the fight to the end.
